DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-17 are pending in the application.

Election/Restrictions

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 121 and 37 C.F.R. 1.141, the antisense sequences listed in claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 11, 13 and 14 are subject to restriction. The Commissioner has partially waived the requirements of 37 C.F.R. 1.141 and will permit a reasonable number of such nucleotide sequences to be claimed in a single application. Under this policy, up to 10 of independent and distinct nucleotide sequences will be examined in a single application. (see MPEP 803.04 and 2434)

Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 1, 13 and 14 specifically claim antisense SEQ ID NOS 82-357, 359-398 and 405-485, which are targeted to and modulate the expression of genes associated with E. coli proliferation. Although some of the antisense sequences claimed target and modulate expression of the same gene, the instant antisense sequences are considered to be unrelated, since each antisense sequence claimed is structurally and functionally independent and distinct for the following reasons: each antisense sequence has a unique nucleotide sequence, each antisense sequence targets a different and specific region of the target gene, and each antisense, upon binding to the target gene, functionally modulates (increases or decreases) the expression of the gene and to varying degree. Furthermore, a search of more than one (1) of the antisense sequences claimed presents an undue burden on the Patent and Trademark Office due to the complex nature of the search and corresponding examination of more than one (1) of the claimed antisense sequences. In view of the foregoing, one (1) antisense sequence is considered to be a reasonable number of sequences for examination. Accordingly, applicants are required to elect one (1) of the claimed antisense sequences (SEQ ID NOS 82-357, 359-398, 405-485) for

In order to be perfectly clear, this is NOT a species election. The antisense molecules are independent and distinct inventions because each antisense molecule is structurally and functionally distinct for the reasons mentioned above.

A telephone call was made to Daniel Hart on September 23, 2002 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
